- ^{5.1)} Please identify what you perceive to be the real strengths and weaknesses of this teaching assistant and course.
- I really liked how my TA took the time to answer questions in section and was willing to explain a problem in multiple ways. One thing that I would have liked to see was for him to schedule makeup sections since we missed a lot of sections due to holidays.
- This TA is extremely nice and is very willing to help students even though students are not responsive often times. He's probably not very fluent in English, but he works diligently to make the discussion section worth students' time. Thus, students understand the concept and the material he's teaching. Moreover, he knows his material well and he helps students review the material learned in class. It's nice to have a review especially for those who had to miss some lectures. He's often times funny, which made my mornings more interesting and enjoyable.
- Was able to specify and describe concepts that were presented in lecture.
- strengths- engaging, relatable, gives good examples, discussion sections are useful weakness- none!
- strengths: knowledgeable of course material weakness: it wouldn't have mattered if I was there or not, I felt like this discussion class was completely unnecessary.
